Planning to attend or return to College in the Fall? Thinking about Enrolling?

Flipping the Switch: Readiness Boot Camp for College-Bound Service Members and Veterans

John Jay College of Criminal Justice, ranked #3 Best for Vets among Colleges in the Country by Military Times, in partnership with JP Morgan Chase, will host two free (one half-day and one full-day) programs for veterans making their transition to higher education.

The Flipping the Switch Orientation is a pioneering program that will guide veterans through their prospective academic journey and inform them on what to expect from and how to maximize their college experience.

- Learn proven strategies and tools to become an engaged and successful student and member of the college community
- Understand how to access and manage your benefits
- Gain tips on how to build your career action plan
- Acquire social media skills
- Build your executive presence
- Networking, coaching, resources and MORE

Guided workshops and interactive exercises led by academic experts and business leaders.
