THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK
BLACK MALE INITIATIVE
SIXTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE

FROM HIGH SCHOOL or G.E.D. to J.D., M.D., or Ph.D.: EXPOSING AFRICAN AMERICAN/BLACK AND LATINO/HISPANIC STUDENTS to GRADUATE AND PROFESSIONAL SCHOOL OPPORTUNITIES

Keynote Speaker
Marc Lamont Hill
Associate Professor of English Education
Teachers College, Columbia University
Host, Our World with Black Enterprise

Keynote Speaker
Julianne Malveaux
President, Bennett College
Economist
Author: “Surviving and Thriving: 365 Facts in Black Economic History”

Keynote Speaker
Adolfo Carrión, Jr.
Regional Administrator
Region II – NY & NJ
United States Department of Housing and Urban Development

Morning Panel Discussions
- Current Enrollment Trends of African Americans and Latinos in Graduate Education
- Concrete Strategies to Promote the Academic Success of African American and Latino Male Collegians
- Navigating Through College: The First Step to Graduate School, Law School or Medical School
- The Dropout Crisis: Why Are So Many Young Men Dropping Out of High School and College?

Afternoon Panel Discussions
- Becoming a Lawyer: Preparing for the LSAT and the Law School Admissions Process
- Becoming a Doctor: Preparing for the MCAT and the Medical School Admissions Process
- Becoming a Teacher: The NYS Teacher Certification Examinations and Careers in the Classroom
- Pathways to MBA and MPA programs
- Widening the Doors to Academia: Pathways to Graduate Programs
- Becoming a Human Services Professional: Social Work, Public Health, and Public Service
- Roundtable Discussion: Supporting African American and Latino Male Collegians

Hunter College
695 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10065 (Lexington and 68th Street) *

Friday, October 7, 2011, 8:00 am to 6:00 pm

As space is limited, please register online as soon as possible at: http://www.cuny.edu/bmi

*By subway, take the # 6 train to 68th Street, Hunter College.
For directions, please visit: http://www.hunter.cuny.edu/abouthunter/maps/68th-street-main-campus or call 212-772-4000

All programs and activities of The CUNY Black Male Initiative are open to all academically eligible students, faculty and staff without regard to race, gender, national origin or other characteristic.